C. Miscellaneous Information

 Do you pay any child care expenses for children age 12 or younger that enables a family member to go to work or to school? (Note: This amount should not exceed the amount earned at work or should not exceed a sum reasonably expected to cover class time and travel time to and from classes. Also, for this expense to be allowed as a deduction from income, the amount is not to be paid to a family member living in the household, is not to be reimbursed by an agency or individual and is allowed only if there is no adult member of the household capable of providing the care.)

() Yes () No Estimated Annual Amount

 Do you have any handicapped assistance expenses which enable a family member (including the handicapped members) to work. (Note: This deduction may be given for expense amounts which exceed 3% of annual income provided they are not paid to a member of the household or reimbursed by an agency or individual.)

DEFINITION OF DISABILITY AND HANDICAP

Individual with disability. A person is considered disabled if the person meets the criteria of either of the following:

1. The person has an inability to engage in any substantial gainful activity, but with use of auxiliary apparatus can otherwise participate in gainful activity, by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment, where the disability:

a. Has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months, or which can be expected to result in death, and

- b. Substantially impedes the ability to live independently, and
- c. Is of such a nature that such ability could be improved by more suitable housing conditions, or

d. In the case of a sight impaired person who is at least 55 years old (within the meaning of sight impairment as determined in Section 223 of the Social Security Act), is unable, because of the sight impairment, to engage in substantial gainful activity in which he/she has previously engaged with some regularity over a substantial period of time.

e. Receipt of veteran's or Social Security Disability payments benefits for disability, whether service-oriented or otherwise does not automatically establish disability.

2. The person has a developmental disability; a severe, chronic disability which:

a. Is attributable to a mental or physical impairment or combination of mental or physical impairment; and

- b. Was manifested before age 22; and
- c. Is likely to continue indefinitely; and
- d. Results in substantial functional limitations in three or more of the following areas of major life activity:

- (1) Self-Care
- (2) Receptive and expressive language
- (3) Learning
- 4) Mobility
- (5) Self-direction
- (6) Capacity for independent living
- (7) Economic self-sufficiency

e. Reflects the person's need for a combination and sequence of special, interdisciplinary or generic care, or treatment, or for other services which are of lifelong or extended duration and are individually planned and coordinated.

Individual with handicap.

- 1. A person with a physical or mental impairment that:
  - a. Is expected to be of long-continued and indefinite duration; and

b. Substantially impedes the person or is of such a nature that the person's ability to live independently could be improved by more suitable housing conditions.

2. The term handicap further means, with respect to a person, a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities; a record of such an impairment; or being regarded as having such an impairment. THIS TERM DOES NOT INCLUDE CURRENT ILLEGAL USE OF OR ADDICTION TO A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE. As used in this definition:

a. Physical or mental impairment includes:

(1) Any physiological disorder or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss affecting one or more of the following body systems: neurological; musculoskeletal; special sense organs; respiratory, including speech organs; cardiovascular; reproductive; digestive; genito-urinary; hemic and lymphatic; skin; and endocrine; or

(2) Any mental or psychological disorder, such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, and specific learning disabilities. The term "physical or mental impairment" includes, but is not limited to, such diseases and conditions as orthopedic, visual, speech and hearing impairments, cerebral palsy, autism, epilepsy, muscular dystrophy, multiple sclerosis, cancer, heart disease, diabetes, human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) infection, acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS), mental retardation, emotional illness, drug addiction (other than addiction caused by current, illegal use of a controlled substance) and alcoholism.

b. Major life activities means functions such as caring for one's self, performing major tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning and working.

c. Has a record of such an impairment means has a history of, or has been misclassified as having a mental or physical impairment that substantially limits one or more of major life activities.

d. Is regarded as having an impairment means:

(1) Has a physical or mental impairment that does not substantially limit one or more major life activities but that is treated by another person as constituting such a limitation;

(2) Has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities only as a result of the attitudes of others toward such impairment; or

(3) Has one of the impairments defined in paragraph 2 a (1) and 2 a (2) of this definition but is treated by another person as having such an impairment.

Persons which meet the definition of disabled or handicapped qualify for a $400.00 deduction to their annual income when determining rent contribution and certain other deductions. If after reading the definitions above you feel that you qualify and would like to request this adjustment to your income, please indicate in the space provided:

() Yes, I feel that I meet the definition of handicapped and/or disabled as defined above and would therefore like to request the $400.00 adjustment to income.

() No, I feel that I do not meet the definition of handicapped or disabled as defined above and therefore do not request the $400.00 adjustment to income.

If you have indicated your desire to request this adjustment, then we will need only sufficient information (documentation) to confirm your qualification for the handicapped/disabled status. Failure to provide this information may result in the denial of these deductions.
